RESIDENT SELECTION PLAN

I. Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity Laws.

- A. In any phase of the occupancy process, management will comply with the provisions of Federal, State or local Fair Housing law prohibiting discrimination in housing on the grounds of race, color, religion, sex, familial status, national origin, or handicap. Other nondiscrimination provisions include Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (Public Law 88-352, 78 Stat. 241), Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Age Discrimination Act of 1975, as they relate to the RD multi-housing program. The occupancy process includes, but is not necessarily limited to, application processing, leasing, transfers, delivery of management and services, access to common facilities and termination of occupancy.
- B. Should any applicant or resident believe their rights have been violated under the Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity laws, they may contact the:

HUD, FHEO Office
801 Cherry Street, Unit #45, Suite 2500
Fort Worth, Texas 76102
817.978.5826

- C. This Development will comply with state and federal fair housing and antidiscrimination laws; including, but not limited to, consideration of reasonable accommodations requested to complete the application process. Chapter 1, subchapter B of this title provides more detail about reasonable accommodations.

Screening criteria will be applied in a manner consistent with all applicable laws, including the Texas and Federal Fair Housing Acts, the Federal Fair Credit Reporting Act, program guidelines, and the Department's rules.

Specific animal, breed, number, weight restrictions, pet rules, and pet rules, and pet deposits will not apply to households having a qualified service/assistance animal(s).

II. EIV (Section 8 Properties Only)

In effort to ensure the right assistance is provided to the right people, the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) has provided all RD 515/8 properties within our portfolio access to a new verification database called the Enterprise Income Verification Systems (EIV). EIV has the potential to provide Management with documentation regarding any Resident currently receiving rental housing assistance from Multifamily Housing, Public Housing or a participant in Housing Choice Voucher programs using the Existing Tenant Search and the Multiple Subsidy Report. Nothing prohibits a HUD assistance recipient from applying to this property. However, the applicant must move out of the current property and/or forfeit any voucher before HUD assistance on this property will begin. If the applicant or any member of the applicant household fails to fully and accurately disclose rental history, the application may be denied based on the applicant's "misrepresentation" of information. The EIV Existing Tenant Search will be utilized when processing an application and the Multiple Subsidy Report will be reviewed on a monthly basis. If any household member receives or attempts to receive assistance in another HUD assisted unit while receiving assistance on this property, the household member will be required to reimburse HUD for assistance paid in error. This is considered a material lease violation and may result in penalties up to and including eviction and pursuit of fraud charges. Staff will ONLY access your EIV income information at Annual Recertification, during your 30 Recertification after the initial move-in date and Management's issuance of an Interim Recertification.

During occupancy, each year as a resident the below listed information will be verified during the Annual Recertification process:

- Social Security Benefits/Medicare Payments
- Supplemental Security Income Payments
- Wage information
- New Hire
- Unemployment
- Resident receiving multiple subsidy payments

In the event, the inquiry into your EIV income information provides management with documentation of your Household's receipt of unreported income, you will be notified to report to the Rental office to meet with Management. In the event Management verifies the information received was not reported timely and exceeds the cumulative monthly amount of $200 or more, a Recertification Repayment Agreement may be executed for a Resident to repay any overpayment of subsidy. If a Resident knowingly provides incomplete or inaccurate information, Management may terminate Assistance and/or Tenancy.

III. Applications and Program Eligibility

Management will accept an application for rental from any and all interested persons, in person, during normal business hours. All persons desiring to apply for occupancy will be provided the opportunity to submit completed applications. It must be recognized that submission of an application neither guarantees the applicant housing nor obligates the Agent to provide housing. Admission and move-in to the unit is contingent upon verified qualification of the applicant and availability of an appropriate unit. Management will serve a multi-family

A. Application Completion Procedures.

The date and time a complete application was submitted will be recorded on the waiting list and will establish priority for selection from the list. If an applicant submits an incomplete application, they must be notified in writing within 10 days of the items that are needed for the application to be considered complete and the priority will not be established until the additional items are received.

1. Written application, on properly prescribed form, must be made in order to be considered for residency.
2. Application must be made in person by the person(s) seeking the rental unit at the Manager's office on the Property unless the applicant meets the exception to this requirement noted in Section III. A. 4. Below.

Only U.S. Citizens or eligible non-citizens may receive assistance. This means at least one family member must be able to provide proof of citizenship or eligible non-citizen status. If some family members are not able to provide proof of citizenship, assistance will be prorated accordingly, based on the number of confirmed eligible family members.
4. Applications may be submitted without personally appearing in the event that an interested party is physically disabled. Anyone may pick up an application at the Manager's Office and if necessary, an application will be mailed to interested persons. Should an applicant be unable physically come into the Office to complete the form:
 - a. The applicant shall be present to provide the required information to the person they have chosen to assist them in the completion of the application form.
 - b. The person assisting an applicant must sign and date the application along with the applicant, to indicate it was completed at the direction of the named applicant. The person will then deliver the application to the Manager's Office and provide proof of their identity to management.
5. The application must be completed in full. Any information required, but not readily available, must be so noted by the applicant on the application form.

(For Section 8 Properties Only) For eligibility purposes, the requirement to disclose a Social Security Number is waived if no Social Security has been assigned and: a) A household member is 62 or older as of January 31, 2010 and eligibility determinations started before January 31, 2010 b) a household member is an ineligible non-citizen. The Social Security Number provided will be compared to the information recorded in the social Security Administration database (through HUD's Enterprise Income Verification System) to ensure that the Social Security Number, birth date and last name match. If EIV returns an error that cannot be explained or resolved, assistance and/or tenancy may be terminated, and any assistance paid in error must be returned to HUD. If the applicant/resident deliberately provides an inaccurate Social Security Number, the owner/agent and/or HUD may pursue additional penalties due to attempted frauds.

6. (Section 8 Properties Only) All applicant household members must provide evidence of citizenship or eligible immigration status. Non-citizens (except those age 62 and older) must sign a Verification Consent Form and submit documentation of their status or sign a declaration that they do not claim to have eligible status. RESIDENT SELECTION PLAN

In addition, there are several areas where the applicant may be given priority consideration over that of another applicant.

A. Applicant Priority.

Selection from the completed applications on the waiting list shall be made in the following priority order.

1. Displaced (LOPE)
2. Extremely Low Income, (until 40% required by HUD is met on Section 8 properties).
3. Very Low Income,
4. Low Income,
5. Moderate-Income,

B. Income Targeting (Section 8 properties).

At least 40% of the assisted units that become available each year of this property’s fiscal year will be made available to families whose income does not exceed 30% of the area median income (extremely low income) at the time of admission.

VII. Assignment of Apartments.

Occupancy Standards and income limits are set by the following chart (Section 8 and Section 515 properties only):

Size of unit	Minimum number of residents	Maximum number of residents
1-bedroom	1	3
2-bedroom	2	5
3-bedroom	3	7
4-bedroom	4	9

A. System of Unit Offers.

1. Priority Transfers.

While the basic standards are to house all very low-income applicants prior to low and then moderate-income applicants, there are situations where this process may be bypassed. When a rental unit becomes available for occupancy priority will be given to the following eligible tenants in the housing project prior to selecting an eligible applicant from the waiting list. (Reference Transfer Policies for additional information)

- a) If the unit is a handicapped accessible unit, then an eligible household that needs the features of that unit will receive priority over all other applicants, regardless of income.
- b) Residents requiring transfers deemed necessary based upon certified medical conditions.
- c) Residents requiring transfers deemed necessary based upon VAWA.
- d) Over Housed: Residents that are housed in over-crowded conditions and have requested a larger unit appropriate for their household size bringing the household into compliance with the occupancy policy for the property.
- e) Under Housed: Residents that are housed in a unit providing a greater number of bedrooms than warranted for their household size bringing the household into compliance with the occupancy policy for the property.

Management will retain a list by bedroom size of families that require unit transfers. The family name shall be placed on this list on the day the Manager becomes aware of the family composition change or other circumstances requiring a change.

An individual in one of the situations identified below would not be eligible for housing before applicants on the waiting list for a lower income category.

- a) No longer a need for the accessible unit in which the household resides

RESIDENT SELECTION PLAN

- b) Availability of Deeper Subsidy (For Tax-Credit Properties only)
- c) Management convenience or for the safety of residents.
- d) A resident who has given indication that they intend to move within the next few months need not be transferred. Any decision not to transfer a resident, however, should be documented and the resident notified in writing

2. Priority Applicants:

- a) Eligible applicants that meet the following conditions must be given priority for occupancy over all other tenants regardless of income. Such applicants, however, will be ranked among themselves by income level, giving priority first to very low-income households, then to low-income households, and finally to moderate-income households.
 - i. Residents who require the special features of a unit accessible to individuals with disabilities only for the units with these features. If more than one applicant needs the features of the accessible unit, then applicants who are very low-income would have priority, followed by low-income and then moderate-income households.
 - ii. The applicant has a letter of Priority Entitlement (LOPE) issued in accordance with 3560.660 (c)
 - iii. The applicant was displaced from Agency-financed housing but was not issued a LOPE.
 - iv. The applicant was displaced in a Federal declared disaster area.
- b) An applicant will be offered an apartment of appropriate bedroom size and type. If there are no applicants for the appropriate bedroom size and type on the waiting list and no applications pending for the appropriate size an offer may be made to house an ineligible family in the available unit after prior approval.

Note: Eligibility is determined on a unit-by-unit basis in accordance with the priorities above.

B. Certification and lease process

- 1. If more than one such apartment is vacant, the applicant will be given a choice of all appropriately sized units.
- 2. All applicants 18+ must sign the Tenant Income Certification forms (HUD Forms 9887 and 9887A, USDA RD 3560-8, TDHCA TIC) at move in and at each annual recertification.
- 3. The unit must be the resident's sole residence.
- 4. All applicant's if approved must agree to pay the required rent by the program under which the applicant will receive assistance.
- 5. Non-Renewal & Termination of Occupancy (RRHA Lease Agreement)
The owner shall terminate the lease and/or resident's right to occupancy and evict the resident or refuse to renew the lease only for material noncompliance with the lease or other good cause (as defined below.)

Such prohibited activity or conduct includes any criminal activity, including the use or pattern of use of an illegal drug, and abuse or pattern of abuse of alcohol. The Owner may terminate the tenancy for such activity or conduct regardless of whether there has been an arrest or conviction and without satisfying a criminal standard of proof of the prohibited activity or conduct.

NOTICE OF VIOLATION. Owner will provide resident with notice of material lease violation or for other good cause. The notice will refer to the relevant portions of the lease stating the violation with sufficient detail to enable the resident to understand and correct the violation (if such violation involves the failure to pay rent, the notice shall state the dollar amount of the balance due and the date of such computation), shall state that the resident shall be expected to correct the violation by a specific date, shall state that the resident may informally meet with the owner to attempt to resolve the stated violation before the date of corrective action specified in the notice, and advise resident that if the action is not corrected by the specified date, the owner shall seek to terminate the lease by bringing a judicial action, at which time the resident may present a defense.

RESIDENT SELECTION PLAN

The notice will also state how a person with disabilities may request a reasonable accommodation in relation to the notice provided.

D. Unit Rejection and Waiting List Position.

1. If the applicant rejects the vacancy offered, the applicant shall be placed at the bottom of the Waiting List.

Such accommodations may include changes in method of administering policies, procedures, and/or services. Any person expressing a desire to apply for a reasonable accommodation will be provided the appropriate forms by the leasing office; however, the reasonable accommodation request is not required to be in writing. When a request for reasonable accommodation is received, it will be forwarded to the 504 coordinator and reviewed in a prompt manner. X. The Violence against Women Act

The Violence against Women Act (VAWA,P.L.09-62) and the Justice Department Reauthorization Act of 2005 protects housing assistance applicants and residents who have been victimized by domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking and "affiliated individuals" of the victim as follows:

1. Applicants cannot be denied rental assistance solely because they were previously Evicted from an assisted site for being victims;
2. Applicants cannot be denied assistance solely for criminal activity or other acts against them that were directly related to being a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking if the applicant otherwise qualifies for assistance or admission;
3. Residents cannot be evicted, or have their subsidies terminated solely because they were victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and/or stalking; being a victim does not qualify as a "serious or repeated violation of the lease" or "other good cause" for eviction.
4. The domestic abusers may be evicted, and their names removed from leases. Remaining household members may continue residency as long as they are eligible.
5. In the event a transfer is required, Emergency Transfer Procedures are available in the leasing office.

RESIDENT SELECTION PLAN

Notice of Occupancy Rights under the Violence Against Women Act¹

To all Tenants and Applicants

The Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) provides protections for victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. VAWA protections are not only available to women, but are available equally to all individuals regardless of sex, gender identity, or sexual orientation.² The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) is the Federal agency that oversees that the Section 8, Section 515 & LIHTC programs are in compliance with VAWA. This notice explains your rights under VAWA. A HUD-approved certification form is attached to this notice. You can fill out this form to show that you are or have been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, and that you wish to use your rights under VAWA.”

Protections for Applicants

If you otherwise qualify for assistance under the Section 8, Section 515 & LIHTC programs, you cannot be denied admission or denied assistance because you are or have been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

Protections for Tenants

If you are receiving assistance under the Section 8, Section 515 & LIHTC programs, you may not be denied assistance, terminated from participation, or be evicted from your rental housing because you are or have been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

Also, if you or an affiliated individual of yours is or has been the victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking by a member of your household or any guest, you may not be denied rental assistance or occupancy rights under the Section 8, Section 515 &

² Housing providers cannot discriminate on the basis of any protected characteristic, including race, color, national origin, religion, sex, familial status, disability, or age. HUD-assisted and HUD-insured housing must be made available to all otherwise eligible individuals regardless of actual or perceived sexual orientation, gender identity, or marital status.

LIHTC programs is solely on the basis of criminal activity directly relating to that domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

Affiliated individual means your spouse, parent, brother, sister, or child, or a person to whom you stand in the place of a parent or guardian (for example, the affiliated individual is in your care, custody, or control); or any individual, tenant, or lawful occupant living in your household.

Removing the Abuser or Perpetrator from the Household

Rock Terrace Apts may divide (bifurcate) your lease in order to evict the individual or terminate the assistance of the individual who has engaged in criminal activity (the abuser or perpetrator) directly relating to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

If Rock Terrace Apts chooses to remove the abuser or perpetrator, Rock Terrace Apts may not take away the rights of eligible tenants to the unit or otherwise punish the remaining tenants. If the evicted abuser or perpetrator was the sole tenant to have established eligibility for assistance under the program, Rock Terrace Apts must allow the tenant who is or has been a victim and other household members to remain in the unit for a period of time, in order to establish eligibility under the program or under another HUD housing program covered by VAWA, or, find alternative housing.

In removing the abuser or perpetrator from the household, Rock Terrace Apts must follow Federal, State, and local eviction procedures. In order to divide a lease, Rock Terrace Apts may, but is not required to, ask you for documentation or certification of the incidences of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

Moving to Another Unit

Upon your request, Rock Terrace Apts may permit you to move to another unit, subject to the availability of other units, and still keep your assistance. In order to approve a request, Rock Terrace Apts may ask you to provide documentation that you are requesting to move because of an incidence of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. If the request is a request for emergency transfer, the housing provider may ask you to submit a written request or fill out a form where you certify that you meet the criteria for an emergency transfer under VAWA. The criteria are:

(1) You are a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. If your housing provider does not already have documentation that you are a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, your housing provider may ask you for such documentation, as described in the documentation section below.

(2) You expressly request the emergency transfer. Your housing provider may choose to require that you submit a form or may accept another written or oral request.

(3) You reasonably believe you are threatened with imminent harm from further violence if you remain in your current unit. This means you have a reason to fear that if you do not receive a transfer you would suffer violence in the very near future.

OR

You are a victim of sexual assault and the assault occurred on the premises during the 90-calendar-day period before you request a transfer. If you are a victim of sexual assault, then in addition to qualifying for an emergency transfer because you reasonably believe you are threatened with imminent harm from further violence if you remain in your unit, you may qualify for an emergency transfer if the sexual assault occurred on the premises of the property from which you are seeking your transfer, and that assault happened within the 90-calendar-day period before you expressly request the transfer.

Rock Terrace Apts will keep confidential requests for emergency transfers by victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, and the location of any move by such victims and their families.

Rock Terrace Apts's emergency transfer plan provides further information on emergency transfers, and Rock Terrace Apts must make a copy of its emergency transfer plan available to you if you ask to see it.

The form will ask for your name, the date, time, and location of the incident of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, and a description of the incident. The certification form provides for including the name of the abuser or perpetrator if the name of the abuser or perpetrator is known and is safe to provide.
- A record of a Federal, State, tribal, territorial, or local law enforcement agency, court, or administrative agency that documents the incident of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. Examples of such records include police reports, protective orders, and restraining orders, among others.
- A statement, which you must sign, along with the signature of an employee, agent, or volunteer of a victim service provider, an attorney, a medical professional or a mental health professional (collectively, “professional”) from whom you sought assistance in addressing domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, or the effects of abuse, and with the professional selected by you attesting under penalty of perjury that he or she believes that the incident or incidents of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking are grounds for protection.
- Any other statement or evidence that Rock Terrace Apts has agreed to accept.

If you fail or refuse to provide one of these documents within the 14 business days, Rock Terrace Apts does not have to provide you with the protections contained in this notice.

If Rock Terrace Apts receives conflicting evidence that an incident of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking has been committed (such as certification forms from two or more members of a household each claiming to be a victim and naming one or more of the other petitioning household members as the abuser or perpetrator), Rock Terrace Apts has the right to request that you provide third-party documentation within thirty 30 calendar days in order to resolve the conflict. If you fail or refuse to provide third-party documentation where there is conflicting evidence, Rock Terrace Apts does not have to provide you with the protections contained in this notice.

Confidentiality

Rock Terrace Apts must keep confidential any information you provide related to the exercise of your rights under VAWA, including the fact that you are exercising your rights under VAWA.

Rock Terrace Apts must not allow any individual administering assistance or other services on behalf of Rock Terrace Apts (for example, employees and contractors) to have access to confidential information unless for reasons that specifically call for these individuals to have access to this information under applicable Federal, State, or local law.

Rock Terrace Apts must not enter your information into any shared database or disclose your information to any other entity or individual. Rock Terrace Apts, however, may disclose the information provided if:

- You give written permission to Rock Terrace Apts to release the information on a time limited basis.
- Rock Terrace Apts needs to use the information in an eviction or termination proceeding, such as to evict your abuser or perpetrator or terminate your abuser or perpetrator from assistance under this program.
- A law requires Rock Terrace Apts or your landlord to release the information.

VAWA does not limit Rock Terrace Apts's duty to honor court orders about access to or control of the property. This includes orders issued to protect a victim and orders dividing property among household members in cases where a family breaks up.

Reasons a Tenant Eligible for Occupancy Rights under VAWA May Be Evicted or Assistance May Be Terminated

You can be evicted, and your assistance can be terminated for serious or repeated lease violations that are not related to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking committed against you. However, Rock Terrace Apts cannot hold tenants who have been victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking to a more demanding set of rules than it applies to tenants who have not been victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

The protections described in this notice might not apply, and you could be evicted, and your assistance terminated, if Rock Terrace Apts can demonstrate that not evicting you or terminating your assistance would present a real physical danger that:

- 1) Would occur within an immediate time frame, and
- 2) Could result in death or serious bodily harm to other tenants or those who work on the property.

If Rock Terrace Apts can demonstrate the above, Rock Terrace Apts should only terminate your assistance or evict you if there are no other actions that could be taken to reduce or eliminate the threat.

Other Laws

VAWA does not replace any Federal, State, or local law that provides greater protection for victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. You may be entitled to additional housing protections for victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking under other Federal laws, as well as under State and local laws.

OMB Approval No. 2577-0286

Purpose of Form: The Violence Against Women Act (“VAWA”) protects applicants, tenants, and program participants in certain HUD programs from being evicted, denied housing assistance, or terminated from housing assistance based on acts of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking against them. Despite the name of this law, VAWA protection is available to victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking, regardless of sex, gender identity, or sexual orientation.

Use of This Optional Form: If you are seeking VAWA protections from your housing provider, your housing provider may give you a written request that asks you to submit documentation about the incident or incidents of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

In response to this request, you or someone on your behalf may complete this optional form and submit it to your housing provider, or you may submit one of the following types of third-party documentation:

- (1) A document signed by you and an employee, agent, or volunteer of a victim service provider, an attorney, or medical professional, or a mental health professional (collectively, “professional”) from whom you have sought assistance relating to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, or the effects of abuse. The document must specify, under penalty of perjury, that the professional believes the incident or incidents of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking occurred and meet the definition of “domestic violence,” “dating violence,” “sexual assault,” or “stalking” in HUD’s regulations at 24 CFR 5.2003.
- (2) A record of a Federal, State, tribal, territorial or local law enforcement agency, court, or administrative agency; or
- (3) At the discretion of the housing provider, a statement or other evidence provided by the applicant or tenant.

Submission of Documentation: The time period to submit documentation is 14 business days from the date that you receive a written request from your housing provider asking that you provide documentation of the occurrence of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. Your housing provider may, but is not required to, extend the time period to submit the documentation, if you request an extension of the time period. If the requested information is not received within 14 business days of when you received the request for the documentation, or any extension of the date provided by your housing provider, your housing provider does not need to grant you any of the VAWA protections. Distribution or issuance of this form does not serve as a written request for certification.

Confidentiality: All information provided to your housing provider concerning the incident(s) of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking shall be kept confidential and such details shall not be entered into any shared database. Employees of your housing provider are not to have access to these details unless to grant or deny VAWA protections to you, and such employees may not disclose this information to any other entity or individual, except to the extent that disclosure is: (i) consented to by you in writing in a time-limited release; (ii) required for use in an eviction proceeding or hearing regarding termination of assistance; or (iii) otherwise required by applicable law.

Tenant Grievance Procedures (7CFR 3560.160)

(a) General.

- (1) The requirements established in this section are designed to ensure that there is a fair and equitable process for addressing tenant or prospective tenant concerns and to ensure fair treatment of tenants in the event that an action or inaction by a borrower, including anyone designated to act for a borrower, adversely affects the tenants of a housing project.
- (2) Any tenant/member or prospective tenant/member seeking occupancy in or use of Agency facilities who believes he or she is being discriminated against because of age, race, color, religion, sex, familial status, disability, or national origin may file a complaint in person with, or by mail to the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Office of Civil Rights, Room 326-W, Whitten Building, 14th and Independence Avenue, SW., Washington DC 20250-9410 or to the Office of Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity, U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), Washington, DC 20410. Complaints received by Agency employees must be directed to the National Office Civil Rights Staff through the State Civil Rights Manager/Coordinator.

(b) Applicability.

- (1) The requirements of this section apply to a borrower action regarding housing project operations, or the failure to act, that adversely affects tenants or prospective tenants.
- (2) This section does not apply to the following situations:
 - (i) Rent changes authorized by the Agency in accordance with the requirements of § 3560.203(a);
 - (ii) Complaints involving discrimination which must be handled in accordance with § 3560.2(b) and paragraph (a)(2) of this section;
 - (iii) Housing projects where an association of all tenants has been duly formed and the association and the borrower have agreed to an alternative method of settling grievances;
 - (iv) Changes required by the Agency in occupancy rules or other operational or management practices in which proper notice and opportunity have been given according to law and the provisions of the lease;
 - (v) Lease violations by the tenant that would result in the termination of tenancy and eviction;
 - (vi) Disputes between tenants not involving the borrower; and
 - (vii) Displacement or other adverse actions against tenant as a result of loan prepayment handled according to subpart N of this part.

(c) Borrower responsibilities.

Borrowers must permanently post tenant grievance procedures that meet the requirements of this section in a conspicuous place at the housing project. Borrowers also must maintain copies of the tenant grievance procedure at the housing project's management office for inspection by the tenants and the Agency upon request. Each tenant must receive an Agency summary of tenant's rights when a lease agreement is signed. If a housing project is located in an area with a concentration of non-English speaking individuals, the borrower must provide grievance procedures in both English and the non-English language. The notice must include the telephone number and address of USDA's Office of Civil Rights and the appropriate Regional Fair Housing and Enforcement Agency.

(d) Reasons for grievance

Tenants or prospective tenants may file a grievance in writing with the borrower in response to a borrower action, or failure to act, in accordance with the lease or Agency regulations that results in a denial, significant reduction, or termination of benefits or when a tenant or prospective tenant contests a borrower's notice of proposed adverse action as provided in paragraph (e) of this section. Acceptable reasons for filing a grievance may include:

- (1) Failure to maintain the premises in such a manner that provides decent, safe, sanitary, and affordable housing in accordance with § 3560.103 and applicable state and local laws;
- (2) Borrower violation of lease provisions or occupancy rules;
- (3) Modification of the lease;
- (4) Occupancy rule changes;
- (5) Rent changes not authorized by the Agency according to § 3560.205; or
- (6) Denial of approval for occupancy.

Tenant Grievance Procedures (7CFR 3560.160)

(e) Notice of adverse action.

In the case of a proposed action that may have adverse consequences for tenants or prospective tenants such as denial of admission to occupancy and changes in the occupancy rules or lease, the borrower must notify the tenant or prospective tenant in writing. In the case of a Borrower's proposed adverse action including denial of admission to occupancy, the Borrower shall notify the applicant/tenant in writing. The notice must be delivered by certified mail return receipt requested, or a hand delivered letter with a signed and dated acknowledgement of receipt from the applicant/tenant. The notice must give specific reasons for the proposed action. The notice must also advise the tenant or prospective tenant of "the right to respond to the notice within ten calendar days after date of the notice" and of "the right to a hearing in accordance with § 3560.160 (f), which is available upon request." The notice must contain the information specified in paragraph (a)(2) of this section. For housing projects in areas with a concentration of non-English speaking individuals, the notice must be in English and the non-English language.

(f) Grievances and responses to notice of adverse action.

The following procedures must be followed by tenants, prospective tenants, or borrowers involved in a grievance or a response to an adverse action.

- (1) The tenant or prospective tenant must communicate to the borrower in writing any grievance or response to a notice within 10 calendar days after occurrence of the adverse action or receipt of a notice of intent to take an adverse action.
- (2) Borrowers must offer to meet with tenants to discuss the grievance within 10 calendar days of receiving the grievance. The Agency encourages borrowers and tenants or prospective tenants to make an effort to reach a mutually satisfactory resolution to the grievance at the meeting.
- (3) If the grievance is not resolved during an informal meeting to the tenant or prospective tenant's satisfaction, the borrower must prepare a summary of the problem and submit the summary to the tenant or prospective tenant and the Agency within 10 calendar days. The summary should include: The borrower's position; the applicant/tenant's position; and the result of the meeting. The tenant also may submit a summary of the problem to the Agency.

(g) Hearing process.

The following procedures apply to a hearing process.

- (1) Request for hearing. If the tenant or prospective tenant desires a hearing, a written request for a hearing must be submitted to the borrower within 10 calendar days after the receipt of the summary of any informal meeting.
- (2) Selection of hearing officer or hearing panel. In order to properly evaluate grievances and appeals, the borrower and tenant must select a hearing officer or hearing panel. If the borrower and the tenant cannot agree on a hearing officer, then they must each appoint a member to a hearing panel and the members selected must appoint a third member. If within 30 days from the date of the request for a hearing, the tenant and borrower have not agreed upon the selection of a hearing officer or hearing panel, the borrower must notify the Agency by mail of the situation. The Agency will appoint a person to serve as the sole hearing officer. The Agency may not appoint a hearing officer who was earlier considered by either the borrower or the tenant, in the interest of ensuring the integrity of the process.
- (3) Standing hearing panel. In lieu of the procedure contained in paragraph (g)(2) of this section for each grievance or appeal presented, a borrower may ask the Agency to approve a standing hearing panel for the housing project.
- (4) Examination of records. The borrower must allow the tenant the opportunity, at a reasonable time before a hearing and at the expense of the tenant, to examine or copy all documents, records, and policies of the borrower that the borrower intends to use at a hearing unless otherwise prohibited by law or confidentiality agreements.
- (5) Scheduling of hearing. If a standing hearing panel has been approved, a hearing will be scheduled within 15 calendar days after receipt of the tenant's or prospective tenant's request for a hearing. If a hearing officer or hearing panel must be selected, a hearing will be scheduled within 15 calendar days after the selection or appointment of a hearing panel or a hearing officer. All hearings will be held at a time and place mutually convenient to both parties. If the parties cannot agree on a meeting place or time, the hearing officer or hearing panel will designate the place and time.
- (6) Escrow deposits. If a grievance involves a rent increase not authorized by the Agency, or a situation where a borrower fails to maintain the property in a decent, safe, and sanitary manner, rental payments may be deposited by the tenant into an escrow account, provided the tenant's rental payments are otherwise current.
 - (i) The escrow account deposits must continue until the complaint is resolved through informal discussion or by the hearing officer or panel.

Tenant Grievance Procedures (7CFR 3560.160)

- (ii) The escrow account must be in a Federally-insured institution or with a bonded independent agent.
- (iii) Failure to make timely rent payments into the escrow account will result in a termination of the tenant grievance and appeals procedure and all sums will immediately become due and payable under the lease.
- (iv) Receipts of escrow account deposits must be available for examination by the borrower.

(7) Failure to request a hearing

If the tenant or prospective tenant does not request a hearing within the time provided by paragraph (f)(1) of this section, the borrower's disposition of the grievance or appeal will become final.

(h) Requirements governing the hearing.

The following requirements will govern the hearing process.

- (1) Subject to paragraph (f)(2) of this section, the hearing will proceed before a hearing officer or hearing panel at which evidence may be received without regard to whether that evidence could be used in judicial proceedings.
- (2) The hearing must be structured so as to provide basic due process safeguards for both the borrower and the tenants or prospective tenants, which must protect:
 - (i) The right of both parties to be represented by counsel or another person chosen as their representative;
 - (ii) The right of the tenant or prospective tenant to a private hearing unless a public hearing is requested;
 - (iii) The right of the tenant or prospective tenant to present oral or written evidence and arguments in support of their grievance or appeal and to cross-examine and refute the evidence of all witnesses on whose testimony or information the borrower relies; and
 - (iv) The right of the borrower to present oral and written evidence and arguments in support of the decision, to refute evidence relied upon by the tenant or prospective tenant, and to confront and cross-examine all witnesses in whose testimony or information the tenant or prospective tenant relies.
- (3) At the hearing, the tenant or prospective tenant must present evidence that they are entitled to the relief sought, and the borrower must present evidence showing the basis for action or failure to act against that which the grievance or appeal is directed.
- (4) The hearing officer or hearing panel must require that the borrower, the tenant or prospective tenant, counsel, and other participants or spectators conduct themselves in an orderly manner. Failure to comply may result in exclusion from the proceedings or in a decision adverse to the interests of the disorderly party and granting or denial of the relief sought, as appropriate.
- (5) If either party or their representative fails to appear at a scheduled hearing, the hearing officer or hearing panel may make a determination to postpone the hearing for no more than five days or may make a determination that the absent party has waived their right to a hearing under this subpart. If the determination is made that the absent party has waived their rights, the hearing officer or hearing panel will make a decision on the grievance. Both the tenant or prospective tenant and the borrower must be notified in writing of the determination of the hearing officer or hearing panel.

(i) Decision.

Hearing decisions must be issued in accordance with the following requirements.

- (1) The hearing officer or hearing panel has the authority to affirm or reverse a borrower's decision.
- (2) The hearing officer or hearing panel must prepare a written decision, together with the reasons thereof based solely and exclusively upon the facts presented at the hearing within 10 calendar days after the hearing. The notice must state that the decision is not effective for 10 calendar days to allow time for an Agency review as specified in paragraphs (i)(3) and (i)(4) of this section.
- (3) The hearing officer or hearing panel must send a copy of the decision to the tenant, or prospective tenant, borrower, and the Agency.
- (4) The decision of the hearing officer or hearing panel shall be binding upon the parties to the hearing unless the parties to the hearing are notified within 10 calendar days by the Agency that the decision is not in compliance with Agency regulations.
- (5) Upon receipt of written notification from the hearing officer or hearing panel, the borrower and tenant must take the necessary action, or refrain from any actions, specified in the decision.
